3. Mechanism for submission of offline students' grievances: The College provides both offline facilities to register the students their grievances

- a) Several complaint boxes have been installed in the corridors of each floor where students can submit their complaints in writing.
- b) Students can register their grievances through the college email available on the website.
- c) The Officer-in-Charge being very approachable and prompt in action, students can meet him directly or submit their grievances to his office directly. Complaints given to him directly are sometimes forwarded to the cell for necessary action.
- d) Students can also register their grievances through the heads of the concerned departments.
