

RAINWATER HARVESTING

A sophisticated rainwater harvesting system collects rooftop rainwater through a network of pipes, channeling it into a well-designed water reservoir, specifically a draw-well strategically located within the campus. This efficient setup ensures optimal rainwater storage for sustainable water management.

MSG
Officer-in-Charge
G.G.D.C. Ranibandh
Rautara, Bankura, 722135