Departmental Students' Activities Report

The Department of English at Government General Degree College, Ranibandh, embarked on its academic journey in 2015 under the aegis of the University of Burdwan. Since 2017, it has been affiliated with Bankura University. With a mission to empower socio-economically disadvantaged students in this remote area, the department has been striving to ignite lights among the students.

To facilitate a smooth transition for newcomers, the department organizes an annual Induction Programme, welcoming freshers and introducing them to the department's functions, courses, and curriculum structure as per CBCS and NEP-2020 guidelines (effective from the 2022-23 session). The Head of the Department and faculty members guide students through the new syllabus, emphasizing Programme Outcomes and Course Outcomes.

During the induction, students are informed about various college committees available for support, the wealth of resources in the college library, and the importance of regular attendance. This comprehensive introduction aims to motivate students to explore academic opportunities and succeed in their academic pursuits.

Students Peer-Teaching:

To make the teaching-learning process more engaging and dynamic, the Department of English frequently incorporates peer-teaching into its classroom activities. This innovative approach empowers students to take on the role of instructors, sharing their knowledge and insights with their peers. By doing so, students not only reinforce their own understanding of the subject matter but also develop essential skills in communication, leadership, and pedagogy. As they teach and learn from one another, students cultivate a collaborative learning environment that fosters academic excellence, creativity, and critical thinking.

In a vibrant peer-teaching programme, the students of Semester-V are sharing their understanding and insights on the characters in George Bernard Shaw's play "Arms and the Man." This collaborative learning experience fosters a deeper appreciation of the complexities of the characters and brings up with unique perspectives.
